Cage-stage Calvinists are identifiable by their insistence on turning every discussion into an argument for limited atonement or for making it their personal mission to ensure everyone they know hears—often quite loudly—the truths of divine election. Now, having a zeal for the truth is always commendable.

Escaping the "Cage Stage" by R.C. Sproul

I know that sounds impossible, but it's absolutely true... You don't need to spend hours practicing these moves or be "big and strong" to pull most of them off. They're simple as hell... but each of them are enough to send someone TWICE your size to the ground in crippling pain - unable to get back up and fight.
